September 2025

Notes From the Margins:

As autumn settles in, I find myself reflecting on the natural rhythm of the seasons and how it mirrors the creative life. Just as the trees shed their leaves, we too can let go of what no longer serves our writing—old drafts, tired habits, or the fear of starting something new.

This is a season of gathering as well: gathering inspiration from the crisp air, golden light, and the stories waiting to be told around us. I encourage each of you to use this time to slow down, notice the details, and capture the richness of the season in your work. Whether you are revising a long project, beginning something fresh, or simply jotting down a few lines in your notebook, remember that every word is a seed planted for the seasons ahead.

I look forward to hearing the harvest of your words at our next meeting.

Billie-Renee Knight
President

November and December Meeting Changes

After discussion and feedback from members, we are switching meeting plans to close out 2025. October remains the same. November will feature a regular meeting at the Topeka Library, Anton Room. The holiday party will be held on December 13, at the Hayden High School library between 10 AM and 2 PM. Bring a covered dish to share, and an unwrapped prize if you want to participate in the raffle.

Kansas Book Festival

There was a good turnout and perfect weather for the September 20 book festival. KWI hosted a table and informed visitors about our organization. Thank you to Alisha Davis for organizing our participation and the members who volunteered to help.

KWI's table "neighbor" was Marsh Douglas. He had an excellent display of his books and many people stopped to browse and visit.

Author's Publish Opportunities

As summer turns to autumn, and our thoughts turn from summer activities to writing, a reminder that Author's Publish sends periodic emails about publishing opportunities for a variety of subjects and genres. Signing up for the emails is free, and you can unsubscribe at any time. The email I received this month listed publishers with geographic limitations (for example, Alaska, Texas or Chesapeake). You don't necessarily have to live in the region to submit. The website is authorspublish.com.

KickStart Opportunities

Shayne Huxtable found a video about an author using KickStart to fund their writing. Shayne says the information is good but warns the video has graphic images. Kickstart Dystopian Romance
